

EuSEC 2011

European Space Elevator Challenge

“make it ecology-minded, make it efficient, make it European”

What is EuSEC?

- the first ‘Space Elevator’ competition in Europe

What is EuSEC about?

- main aims of EuSEC in the first years:
 - to introduce the ‘Space Elevator’ concept to public
 - to inspire young engineers and scientists
- long-term goals of EuSEC
 - to establish a larger European space elevator community
 - to utilizing the experiences for the development of a real ‘Space Elevator’ system

Who is EuSEC appeals to?

- target group:
 - students from universities, colleges, tertiary institutions
- application:
 - takes place with several steps - the first step is at least 90 days before the competition

When and where takes EuSEC place?

- Date:
 - 10. June 2011 – 12. June 2011
 - alternative date : 16. June 2011 – 18. June 2011
 - note: the number of days can vary by the number of applicants
- Place:
 - Germany; Technical University of Munich - TUM
 - Campus Garching - Garching Forschungszentrum

Contact Information:

- Address: Andreas Fleischner (WARR)
Lehrstuhl für Raumfahrttechnik
Boltzmannstraße 15.
85748 Garching,
Germany
- Email: spaceelevator@warr.de
- Website: <http://eusec.warr.de>